

Jazz & Pas De Deux Master Classes August 21st & 28th

With Guillermo Leyva, Adam Houston & Devin Buchanan

Devin Buchanan began studying dance at Pinnell Dance Centre in Gahanna, OH, and continued his training in the certificate program at The Ailey School, where he was given the opportunity to perform with Alvin Ailey American Dance Theatre in 'Memoria'. After graduating from the program, Devin was accepted into "The Fraulein Maria Project" where he continued his work in modern dance. Devin has danced for Giordano Dance Chicago for five seasons and has toured nationally and internationally with Giordano.

Adam Houston began his early training in his hometown of Boone, Iowa and he continued studying at The University of Arizona. There Adam began his professional training in ballet with James Clouser, along with modern and jazz. After graduating Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance, Adam began his professional career with Giordano Dance Chicago. Adam is a full company member with Giordano and has performed with the main company regionally, nationally, and internationally.

Guillermo Leyva trained at the Professional School of Arts in Camaguey, Cuba, and danced professionally at Ballet de Camaguey, Ballet de Monterrey, and Joffrey Ballet of Chicago, among others. A former instructor at BDA, Guillermo is currently co-director of Alma Dance School, and is an internationally recognized expert in the art of pas de deux.
